EASTER MILLINERY

only has one more day === that is, if you wish your Hat or Bonnet for Easter Sunday.

It is true that every leeway in our workrooms is stacked high with orders to be finished before the wee hours of Easter Morn, and yet we are prepared to take orders up to the last moment and assure prompt delivery. Our ready-trimmed stock is the FINEST IN THE CITY-at least, so we've been told by people who have seen them all-we are inclined to believe it really is. You cannot paint the beauties of an Easter Millinery display in words any more than you can picture the glories of a sunset, or a moonrise, or any of the beauties of nature's art-you must simply see them as we have them displayed.

A Few Special Prices

On Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats, Bonnets, Flowers and Trimmings.

The price—not the worth—of these handsome trimmed hats is $4.98. These $4.98 conceptions are all that $7 or $8 buys. They are the daintiest hats within Washington today-Paris suggested some features, London others—we combined transoceanic chic with American dash. Don't confuse worth with price. They could be $7 and $8. They are

Umbrella Drummers' Samples at Half Price.

Strange about seasons in the business world. We're just beginning a new one— the wholesalers have barely closed theirs. Last week one of the biggest umbrella concerns in the land called in its drummers from the road in order to plan its summer campaign. Imagine what a lot of samples that threw on their hands. They'd served their purpose and were of little further use to the firm, but they were just the goods we wanted, and we bought every the goods we wanted, and we bought every one, stick and cover, at one-half and less of the market price. ## THE NEW POLICE AND FIRE HEADQUARTERS

A $28,000 Building to Be Erected for the District.

Negotiations Completed by the Commissioners With R. H. Harper.

House Site-To Be Completed in Five Months.

Negotiations were completed yesterday for a new headquarters building for the Police and Fire Departments of the District. According to the agreement enered into by the Commissioners, R. H. Harper will erect a handsome five-story structure at 467 C Street northwest, running back the entire depth of the lot to the rear of the present District Building, on Louisiana Avenue. The building will be begun immediately and completed within five months, or, if possible, by August 1. The entire first floor of the new building Our 3d Floor Nook of Easter will be rented to the District, with the choice of a large room on the basement floor, all for the sum of $1,500 per year. This amount has already been appropri-ated for the purpose.

A Two-day Pre-Easter Clothing Sale of Wonderful Magnitude and Extraordinary Money-saving Importance

We announced Thursday the significant purchase of 1,980 bolts of cloth from a firm of manufacturers of fine woolen goods. This cloth, which was purchased during the mill's dull times, embraces the most stylish and refined patterns in Scotch Cheviots, Cassimeres, Worsteds, also Black and Blue Clays and Serges. Under our personal supervision these goods were transformed into highest-class clothing for man and boy. Thus, by manufacturing ourselves and saving both the manufacturers' and jobbers' profits,

We Are Enabled to Quote the Lowest Prices Ever Known on Highest-class Clothing.

Words cannot truly, nor with sufficient force, tell of the bargain opportunities now awaiting you here, and this sale, occurring, as it does, just before Easter and right at the dawn of the Spring season, adds a hundred times to the virtues of the values.
